

URBAN TALKS

$10
entry

Emerging Issues from Grassroots to International

TOPIC:

Social entrepreneurship in public spaces for a healthier urban future

You are invited to participate in an engaging event with Dr. Luisa Bravo, Dr. Mirko Guaralda and local experts to answer the question “How can we create an environment where social entrepreneurship can achieve better public space outcomes for the ACT population?”. Unlike traditional format our discussion leaders will co-create with you together the solutions, which will be compiled in a report that can help to shape a healthier community. Let’s us explore together pathways to accelerated community actions for a better urban future through opportunities for social entrepreneurship in Canberra’s public spaces.

MODERATOR:

Gregor H. Mews, Director of Urban Synergies Group

SPEAKERS:

Dr. Luisa Bravo, President of City Space Architecture

Dr. Mirko Guaralda, Senior Lecturer QUT Design Lab

EXPERTS AND DISCUSSION LEADERS:

Robyn Hendry, CEO Canberra Business Chamber

Natalija Nikolic, Emissary Group

Ian Wood- Bradley, Director of Wood-Bradley Brooks

David Caffrey, Director of Dionysus

Tuesday, 29th May 2018 at 5:30-7:30pm

THEO NOTORAS CENTRE - 180 London Circuit, Canberra ACT 2601

Participants are encouraged to arrive with public transport, by walking or cycling. Doors open at 5:30pm.

For further information: www.urbansynergiesgroup.org

Registration under: <https://www.planning.org.au/events/category/all-act-events-by-date> or pay on entry.

Proudly supported by:

Queensland University of Technology

